Gathering Pacific Southwest Leaders

In the local mountains over Labor Day weekend, we hosted medical student leaders from several Southern California and Arizona Christian Medical Fellowship and Christian Medical and Dental Association (CMDA) groups. Representing schools such as UCLA, UC San Diego and the University of Arizona, the students spent time discussing ways they could better grow in their walks with God and reach out to their classmates who do not know Jesus. Frequently, they carved time out to seek God and pray specifically for the individual campuses represented.

It is one thing to have a Christian student organization on campus. It can be something entirely different for a Christian student group to have a vision and a passion to see other students come to Christ, built in their walks with Him, and developed into multiplying disciples. We are trusting that God will do this very thing through these leaders. Would you join with us in praying for this as well?

Later this afternoon, we'll have our weekly Spiritual Care Practicum. We have a growing number of Christian students who show up to learn how they can care for the spiritual needs of their patients. We hold a teaching session, then head into the Medical Center to practice these skills with patients, and then have a debrief afterwards.

Next month, we'll head to Ukraine to host our first-ever European METS Whole Person Care Conference (Oct, 18-19). We'd be most grateful for your prayers. We'll give you an update soon.

Thanks so much for joining us in this work. We so appreciate you!
