Elissa Begins Nursing School; Jordan Prepares to Leave for Internship

Earlier this week our daughter, Elissa, began nursing school at California Baptist University. She plans to spend the next three years completing her BSN degree. While she continues to seek God's direction and confirmation, Elissa has a strong interest in serving on the mission field in Africa.

Within the next few days, our son, Jordan, will depart to serve for the next 10 months as an intern with Cru. In short, he and several others will be partnering with local churches in select cities to meet Christian students and launch spiritual movements through them. A vast majority of universities in these cities have little to no Christian presence and his team wants to be a part of changing that.

Please pray that God would anoint this team with His Spirit, provide unity, wisdom, courage, effectiveness, and blessing as they seek to build relationships with nationals who will become multiplying disciples.

At this "milestone" in our family history, we are grateful to you for your significant role of our family. In addition to making possible this worldwide ministry among health students and professionals, you have literally helped provide food, shelter, and clothing to Jordan and Elissa. Your investments have helped us as we have sought to constantly point our children to the creator God and impart a Great Commission life vision that is so much bigger than themselves. Thank you so very much in partnering with us in the ultimate discipleship journey of parenthood.
