God's Network

Sometimes it becomes blatantly obvious that God wants to connect folks. That's what Cliff Carey was beginning to think.

During the pandemic and the California lockdown, Cliff launched The Back Shed, a podcast from his tool shed for those in his church and beyond. He's done Bible studies and featured guests to offer insights to daily Christian living.

A few months ago, Benny Stripe, an interventional cardiologist, began listening. We met Benny 15 years ago on the first day of his med school journey. At a basketball game, Benny encouraged Cliff to consider Bob as a guest on his show.

Last summer, med student Stephanie attended our Whole Person Care Preceptorship. In fact, during the preceptorship she asked Bob to baptize her. She is Cliff's niece. Once word of Stephanie's baptism reached her uncle, Cliff realized he needed to reach out to Bob.

We thought you might enjoy the show that aired on YouTube Live earlier this week.

Thanks for helping us in many ways & places to help healthcare pros and students live on mission in their day-to-day lives.
