In past letters we've mentioned our dear friend Steve Noblett. For 17 years he led as CEO the Christian Community Health Fellowship—a community of Christian healthcare professionals who are committed to living out the gospel through healthcare among the poor.

Last month Steve died after a long illness. He was a great friend to us and many others across the US. Please join us in praying for his wife, Victoria, his family, and the many who loved and appreciated him.

A few weeks before Steve stepped down as CEO, he interviewed Bob for the CCHF Talk podcast. You can watch that by scanning the QR code.

Also online is an interview that Christian Medical & Dental Association (CMDA) did with Isaac Knouff, a med student who attended our 2025, and was featured in our last letter.

We are so grateful for you and your partnership in all God is doing in and through people in healthcare as they point people to Jesus. Thank you!
